A very happy Holi to you and your family!

The Festival of Colors is a time to commemorate the triumph of good over evil and embrace the opportunity to renew ourselves by shedding away negativity. It is one of my favorite holidays. Not only does Holi mark the end of winter and the arrival of spring, but it also marks a day for our community to gather with one another to celebrate, to laugh, and to rejoice.

Thank you to the Vedic Cultural Center in Sammamish for organizing this grad event which celebrates Indian culture on the Eastside, and to the City of Redmond for its support.

The Festival of Colors provides an opportunity to extend our shared traditions with the whole community of Redmond. The increasing growth of the Indian community in Redmond has brought me tremendous joy and pride.

As we enter new beginnings in spring, I wish good health, peace, and prosperity to you and your family.

I look forward to seeing you at this joyous celebration!

Sincerely,

Manka Dhingra
